Whereas, St. Louis Data Destruction has been voted the most supportive small business in the St. Louis Region as it relates to civic and charitable organizations such as the St. Louis 1904 World's Fair Charitable Foundation and The Squires & Ladies Charitable Foundation, both of which benefit other local charities, including AMC Cancer Research, Forest Park, and The Saint Louis Ambassadors; and

Whereas, St. Louis Data Destruction is the most professional and best full-service records management firm in the St. Louis Region offering on-site and off-site paper shredding and hard data destruction, secured record storage, data archiving, equipment sales, and shredder repair service; and

Whereas, the National Association for Information Destruction (NAID) has awarded St. Louis Data Destruction as the first shredding company in the St. Louis Region with their prestigious AAA Certification rating, thus confirming that St. Louis Data Destruction has met or exceeded all of the stringent requirements as set forth by NAID and the rules, regulations, and laws surrounding secure paper and data shredding, which further defines to existing and potential clients that they are a top-rated, completely safe, and totally secure full-service records management and data destruction firm; and

Whereas, Ken Walsh, Jr., and John Walsh, current owners of St. Louis Data Destruction, consider their biggest assets to be their many loyal employees, their customers, and their vendors, with whom they work together as a team:
